Old Settlers Reunion at Truxton July 25th. 9-10-34.

Mrs. Bertha E. Hill.

Died Friday morning July 10, 1903 at the home of Gibson Dickey where she and her husband resided temporarily. Mrs. Bertha E. Hill beloved companion of Roland E. Hill, age 19 years 11 months and 6 days. Mrs. Hill was the oldest daughter of Mr. D. C. McCord of Curryville, Pike county and was born in Montgomery county Mo., 4, 1881. She professed faith in Christ and united with the New Hope Baptist Church September 4, 1900 and was baptized by Rev. R. E. McQuie. On October 30, she became the wife of Mr. R. E. Hill, Rev. McQuie performing the ceremony. She was a kind and devoted wife, a loving mother and an excellent Christian lady. She meekly bore her suffering and when the end came bid her dear husband, little daughter, sister and friends good bye and calmly fell asleep in Jesus. She leaves to lament her departure a father, one sister, one brother, three half sisters, a lonely companion, a precious little girl and many other dear friends.

Her funeral in accordance with her request was preached by Rev. R. E. McQuie at Liberty church, Callaway county after which her body was buried in the Liberty cemetery in the presence of many weeping friends.

Little Edna Bezold.

Death again has entered the household of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Bezold of McKittrick and claimed for its victim their youngest child little Edna. Last Sunday week while playing she cut her toe on a rock but it did not seem to be serious until Friday morning the child began to complain. The doctor was sent for and all that medical power and kind parents could do was done for little Edna but all to no avail. Blood poison set in and no help could save her and she died Saturday eve July 11, 1903 at the age of four years, 2 months and 8 days.

Funeral services were conducted Sunday eve by Rev. Schuch and the remains were laid to rest in the family burying ground. We extend sympathy to the heart-broken parents in this sad hour of bereavement.

Short indeed was Edna's stay in this world of pain, but how sweet the blessed promise We shall meet again.
O how much we miss our darling But we know God's ways are best And we hope to meet dear Edna In the land of peace and rest.
Our darling child from us has gone The voice we loved is still; A place is vacant in our home Which never can be filled.

James M. Robinson aged 81 years 9 months and 12 days died at the residence of his son-in-law W. E. Owings in this city Wednesday July 15, at 12:30 p. m.

Mr. Robinson was one of the early settlers of this county and was the oldest citizen of Montgomery City. Nine years ago he suffered a paralytic stroke and had been confined to his bed ever since. Funeral services were conducted at the Methodist church at 2 o'clock Thursday by Revs. Kerr and Penn after which burial took place in city cemetery.

The Conservatory of Music of Central Wesleyan College at Warrenton, Mo., had 120 students enrolled during last year. All instruments are taught. Harmony, counterpoints etc., a specialty. The director, Zeno Nagel, was educated in Oberlin, O., and in Leipzig, Germany. For terms and catalogue write to President Addicks, Warrenton, Mo.

Misses Marguerette Gleason and Emma Yetter two of Middletown's charming young ladies spent a few hours in Montgomery last Friday on their way to St. Louis to visit relatives. They are assistants in the Chips office and while here made us a call.

IN MEMORY OF OUR LAMENTED BROTHER E. M. HUGHES.

Resolutions Adopted by the Order of the Eastern Star.

The Silver Cord is loosed, the Golden Bowl is broken and the spirit of our esteemed brother E. M. Hughes has returned to the God who gave it.

A wise, useful and upright man and citizen has gone to his reward. He was a noble character. He was a kind, affectionate and sincere friend. He valued a good name above every thing else, and took special interest in those of his friends whom he considered honest and upright in all their dealings with their fellowmen. He so lived and acted that his life was an example that all who knew him might follow and be benefited thereby. An embodiment of all that is good and upright and just.

We deeply deplore his loss, for his wise Counsel and brotherly feeling for the Eastern Star was felt and appreciated by all the members of the order. The order of the Eastern Star has lost a faithful member and a sincere friend, but our loss is as nothing compared with that of his bereaved and grief stricken family to whom we extend our sincere and heartfelt sympathy in their sad bereavement.

Resolved: That a copy of these resolutions be furnished to each of the city papers and that a copy be spread on the record in our Chapter and that a copy be presented to the family of our deceased brother.

Claude Leach who was re-elected teacher of the McKittrick school has resigned on account of bad health. A. O. Wilson of Montgomery has been employed to fill the place.

One of H. W. Nunnely's children of near Auxvasse was badly kicked by a horse last week which might have proved fatal. The kick cut a gash 5 inches long on the side of its head, cracking the skull. We are glad to know however that the child is up and around doing well.

The prize lazy man of Montgomery "got busy" the other day and wrote this paragraph: "How much nicer it is to sit in a carriage and think how much nicer it is to sit in a carriage than it is to walk, than it is to walk and think how much nicer it is to sit in a carriage than it is to walk."

A Proper Bath.

This is a story told on Mr. Geo. A. McNutt, the Chesterfieldian passenger agent of the M. K. & T. Ry: In his travels through Nebraska he stopped overnight in a small town and registered at the hotel pointed out to him by the conductor as the best in town. In the morning he wanted to take a bath and consulted the proprietor about it. The proprietor shouted back to the rear: "Here, Tom, this here gent wants a bath. Bring the fixin's." Tom soon appeared carrying a cake of yellow soap, a towel and a pick. "What's the pick for?" asked George. "Why," said the proprietor, "you'll have to dam up the creek."

MRS. L. S. ADAMS.
Of Galveston, Texas.

"Wine of Cardui is indeed a blessing to tired women. Having suffered for seven years with weakness and bearing-down pains, and having tried several doctors and different remedies with no success, your Wine of Cardui was the only thing which helped me, and eventually cured me. It seemed to build up the weak parts, strengthen the system and correct irregularities."

By "tired women" Mrs. Adams means nervous women who have disordered menses, falling of the womb, ovarian troubles or any of these ailments that women have. You can cure yourself at home with this great women's remedy, Wine of Cardui. Wine of Cardui has cured thousands of cases which doctors have failed to benefit. Why not begin to get well today? All druggists have $1.00 bottles. For any stomach, liver or bowel disorder Thedford's Black-Draught should be used.
